HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Please continue to keep Pastor Parker and the family in your prayers. Pray that all goes well and that they are as strong in body as in spirit. (3 John 2, CEV)

Begin the new year with an exciting 12-session Bible Study! DC is offering an array of studies to strengthen your walk with God.

TNT and Men's Study: "Making Disciples — Using Paul, Timothy, and the Titus Example"

Women's Study: "Making Disciples — Using the Naomi-Ruth Example."

You are invited to share in these dynamic studies to renew your calling and purpose in 2013. Classes are January 8 through March 27.

Children and Youth Accomplishments

Dewayne Bryant, a junior defensive end on the football team at McCallum High School, was selected for the Texas UIL District 26-4 A 2nd Team All-District Defense. Dewayne also played on McCallum's 2012 Texas UIL District 26-4A Championship team.

Bryce Deary, a 4th grade student at Windermere Elementary School, made the all "A" honor roll for the last two grading periods and was selected for the Duke Talented Identification Program.

Trevor Deary, a sophomore at Pflugerville High School, made the "A/B" honor roll for the last two grading periods. Trevor was also selected to the All Region Symphonic Band for Percussion.

Zavonne Nunn, a senior cornerback on the football team at McCallum High School, was selected for the Texas UIL District 26-4 A Honorable Mention All District. Zavonne also played on McCallum's 2012 Texas UIL District 26-4A Championship team.

DC Congratulates Keith Overton-Hadnot on receiving a Masters of Business Administration from Concordia University on December 1, 2012.

The December Pulse incorrectly named his brother as the graduate. Our apologies for the mistake. We wish Keith great success in the future!

Thanks to your generosity and overwhelming support, the "Feed the Need" campaign, led by Mission I and operated in conjunction with the DC Pictorial Directory initiative, received 163 canned goods. To date, over 112 canned goods have been distributed by Mission I as part of their Soup Ministry and outreach campaigns.

Mission I and the DC Pictorial Directory Team truly appreciates your efforts! Special thanks to Mission I for their collaboration.

The DC Financial Ministry is offering three dynamic opportunities to improve your financial strength in 2013! In February, the first study is on the book "Less than Tipping, 25 Reasons for Tithing." The second study starts in April and will be based on the powerful book "10 Steps to Financial Freedom." Imagine the insights with which God will bless you as you study and apply these steps! Finally, the Crown Ministry classes will resume in late August. This is a small group scriptural and practical study of some of God's 2,500 verses on money.

Sign-up will begin later this month. Don't miss out on these thought provoking, insightful, and powerful studies. Contact Suzanne Woodard for more information.

The installation of church leaders and workers will be Sunday, January 13, 2013 during the 10:30 a.m. worship service.
Please dress in black or dark blue attire.

Members of the Backyard Bible Study Group of Quadrant 4 were treated to a recent reunion party by Brother Sammie and Sister Cherry Brooks (seated) at their home. The members, some of whom did not know each other well, formed a bond of friendship during their Bible study sessions. The party consisted of food, fun, games and fellowship.
